Excavation of the new Camp Budsin Tabernacle begins on the Clauson Farm

Work Begins on Restore Camp Budsin Project

Late last fall, excavation began for the Restore Camp Budsin Project. This spring, work resumed on recreating the Camp Budsin Tabernacle.

In a quick recap, the Camp Budsin Tabernacle was originally located on hwy 22 between Wautoma and Montello, Wisconsin. One of only two Tabernacles in the state, it was built in 1943 as a place to host revival meetings. In its later years, the Tabernacle hosted many speakers and concerts during its summer season.

In the winter of 2012, the Tabernacle was damaged by fire, and the association in charge of Camp Budsin decided not to rebuild the historic structure citing lack of attendance and concern for its remote location. Rather than seeing the history of Camp Budsin lost, the association approved moving the Camp Budsin building to the Clauson farm where it would be restored and reopened.

However, the new building will need to comply by today's commercial building codes if it is to be used again by the public. Along with fulfilling these commercial building requirements comes great cost.

Currently, the Camp Budsin Project has had plans for the foundation drawn up by an architect and approved by the state. Building and zoning permits have been purchased, excavation for the basement has occurred and the forms for the footings have been made. A series of inspections will be conducted by the commercial building inspector throughout the rebuilding process.

It was decided to build a fieldstone foundation for the new Camp Budsin building which will be a very labor intensive project, but will create a historical characteristic. It is the hopes of the Restore Camp Budsin Project to make great progress on the foundation this summer.

Fundraisers and events will continue to occur to make this restoration possible. All donations are greatly appreciated and are used exclusively to recreate this important piece of history.

If you or someone you know would like to volunteer to help with this project, you can call the Clauson Business Office at 715-228-2951. If you would like to provide financial contributions to the project, they can be sent to the Restore Camp Budsin Project, W13412 County Road CC, Coloma WI 54930. More information on this project can also be found online at www.clausonfamilymusicshows.com and click on the Restore Camp Budsin Project tab.

Dells Boat Tour

Also coming up in July is another popular excursion, The Dells Boat Tour. This great event is taking place on Thursday, July 24 and Saturday, July 26 with 12:00pm departures. This event features a great afternoon of picturesque scenery, exquisite dining and entertaining music.

Guests begin their afternoon with a scenic tour of the Upper Dells, then arrive by boat to Cold Water Canyon and enjoy a scenic walk into the canyon where a steak and lobster dinner awaits. Following the dinner, a concert featuring the Cody Clauson Trio, with a great variety of music, occurs in front of the historic sandstone building in the Canyon. If you haven't joined us for the Dells Boat Tour event yet, this is going to be a great year to come along, and even if you've enjoyed the event in the past, you can join us again as the concert changes each year and one always sees something new in the beauty of the Wisconsin Dells.

This event has sold out for the last three years and is on track to sell out again this year. However, there are currently some tickets still available for both dates. Tickets are $75 Adults, $72 Seniors and $60 Children. This includes the boat ride, tour into the canyon, steak and lobster dinner, and concert with the Cody Clauson Trio.

Call to make your reservation today for this great afternoon of beauty, dining and music!

The Story of my Chickens

Patrick Leibsle

I used to live about three miles from the Clauson Barn, but we were still within the city limits. Then we moved to Plainfield, WI, which is about 20 miles away. When I met the Clausons five or six years ago, I wanted chickens. When Brittney realized this, she said she would hatch a couple for me. We couldn't have them though in the city where we used to live.

Then in late April this year, our dad went to pick up one dozen quail. They became his and mine. Then about two weeks later, our mom got six baby hens so she would have some. And then on top of that, Brittney hatched me four chicks and gave me a hen. It wasn't until we had 23 birds in our living room that we thought to build a chicken-coop. So now we are almost finished building a coop for our 23 birds.

Just after we got our birds, our grandma got 30 chickens, two ducks and three turkeys. Now we don't ever have to worry about being lonely.

With our quail, I wanted to see what would happen if I took one outside and turned it loose. I was amazed because it would fly about eight to ten feet and then it would just sit there looking around and that's all it would do. I was amazed because usually they are crazy in their cage.

Now every morning I can get up and sit with my birds just wondering why I didn't have them earlier.

B's Critter Report Brianna Leibsle

Have you ever seen a Coturnix quail? Well, we have nine of them. They are brown and white. They're also very small, more short and round than anything else. Coturnix quail are about as big as a man's fist. Right now we have them, 11 chickens, dog, cat and two rabbits living in our house. We are working on the chicken coop.

Now that we are out of school, they will be getting lots of attention, along with our outside gang. We have six critters outside. We have a pony, donkey and four sheep. Two sheep are new. Their names are Martha and Stewart. They are Olde English Baby Dolls, which are about two feet tall with eight-inch legs.

Martha and Stewy are long and low, which is how the breed is supposed to be. When we got them, they were about 150 pounds each, which is twice the normal weight! At least they are starting to slim down. Stewy is brown and Martha is white.

Bonnie and Blanche are the two Shetland sheep we got when we got Clyde, the donkey, who was the first member of our gang. They are short with long skinny legs. They tower over Martha and Stewart (by an inch). Bonnie is my favorite because she walks on her halter like a well-trained dog only for me. She once jumped in the back of the pickup truck with me. Winter, the pony, follows on her lead rope too.

Speaking of winter, it was a very harsh one. I'm glad it's over and spring could come, because with it comes birthdays and camping. We will celebrate both of our rabbit's and my birthday in June. Patrick and I are also looking forward to going to camp. Patrick is going once and I am going twice!
